Welcome to our Victorian residence, dating from 1870, in historic Falmouth.

With its beautiful natural harbour and splendid Tudor castle, the area is one of Cornwall's finest locations for exploring the far South West of England.

Step inside, and experience the elegance and comfort. We have some carefully chosen antiques, fine art and fascinating books to create an ambience where you can relax and feel at home.

Our traditional English breakfast is a special occasion with which to start the day and exchange experiences with fellow guests. The menu is quintessentially English with a small German touch and uses only the finest Cornish produce available.

Each of our ten bedrooms has its own individual character, creating an atmosphere that makes you feel special.

All our bedrooms enjoy full ensuite bathrooms or showers, colour televisions, and individually controlled central heating. Thoughtful extras include hospitality tray, clock radio, hairdryer, Cornish mineral water and chocolates by your bedside.

For your comfort, all our bathrooms have heated towel rails, fluffy white towels and a range of luxury toiletries.

For that special occasion, we can arrange for champagne, chocolates or flowers to be placed in your room.

Our licensed and non-smoking house lies within a short walk of beaches and the historic town, so you can leave the car in our own private car park. We speak English and German and also offer guided tours through Cornwall.
